THE ANNIE WRIGHT SEMINARY
TACOMA 3, WASHINGTON

ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Seminary fair;
May achievements crown thy labors
Is our earnest prayer.

CHORUS:

Hearts turned toward our Alma Mater
May our lives at length
Prove thy daughters bear thy motto:
"On From Strength to Strength."
Deep and true as those blue waters
Thou art reared above,
May the characters thou moldest
Hold thee in their love.

(CHORUS)

Pure as yonder snow-clad mountains
Where our glances fall,
May we in the years to follow
Answer to thy call.

DEDICATION

Mr. Woodhams, in gratitude for the years in which you served as our chaplain, we dedicate this SHIELD to you. As you leave us, our minds turn toward the many facets of your personality which we have come to know: your hearty smiles as we flocked about you on Lower School Corridor; your dedication and strength as you spoke on Thursday mornings; your concerned kindness when we came to you with our problems; and certainly the merry twinkle in your eye when, in your pink shirt, you pulled out your trombone on Dad's Day.

We are deeply grateful that we could be members of a student body under your spiritual leadership. As you depart from us, you carry with you our prayers for a rich and rewarding ministry in Rome.

IN MEMORIAM

WARD ESTEY 1875 - 1960

Treasurer of The Annie Wright Seminary 1932-1960

In grateful tribute this page is dedicated to Ward Estey, member of the Board of Trustees and Treasurer of the Annie Wright Seminary for twenty-eight years. His daily attention through these years to the affairs of the school went beyond the keeping of the accounts to concern for everyone within the school and to the welfare of the Seminary both as a school and as a Tacoma institution. No detail was too small and no task too great to have his intelligent and concerned attention. The Seminary will forever reap the harvest of his counsel and his work on its behalf.

In 1959 on the occasion of the 75th anniversary of the founding of the school, the financial office was named "The Ward Estey Room in grateful appreciation for twenty-seven years of generous and faithful service as Treasurer of this school."

"Remember thy servant, O Lord, and may he go FROM STRENGTH TO STRENGTH in the life of perfect service in thy heavenly kingdom."

MISS RUTH JENKINS
Headmistress

Refreshed by your well-deserved vacation last year, you returned in the fall with renewed energy and spirit. Under the influence of your penetrating insight and understanding, this has been a year of efficient organization and progress. The direction you have given in past years and will continue to give in the future makes our school one of which every girl is proud to be a part.

The sharing of personal and often amusing experiences, the sincere interest you have in each girl, and the inspiration given to the members of the student body—for these we thank you, "R.J."

Alive and fresh, they have begun their search for knowledge and truth. Looking backward they see four years of preparation that will help them to maintain their desire for knowledge. The varied responsibilities given them have brought forth a sense of duty and reliability in their spirits; may they continue to live for their ideals, which have been so firmly established in them.

THE SENIOR CLASS of 1961

SENIOR CLASS SONG

We're the class that wears the yellow ties,

The Class of Sixty-one.

It is we who strive for victory

Until the fight is won.

We meet our every obstacle

With banner waving high.

We are the best at Annie Wright,

So we'll fight for the yellow tie.

We will never forget Annie Wright

As we live our whole life's length;

We will try to prove our motto

Going on "From Strength to Strength."

The future leaders of A.W.S. shine through with individuality, however unified their efforts as a group. With a tingle of fright they gave us a part of themselves in their Junior Speeches. The seniors will take with them the brilliance of the Junior Prom. Their trio of one act plays was well performed and much enjoyed. These leaders will be remembered in the hearts of those who feel their cooperation and good will at work.

A family has many traits and in our Seminary family the Sophomore Class represents vigor. Their ideals are set high and their many duties are enthusiastically carried out. In our new library, they fulfill many helpful tasks; their decorations in the front hall at Christmastime were unique; their decorations for the Student Council "Harbor Lights" dance remain a highlight of the year. We trust the Sophomores will continue to move forward enthusiastically and eagerly.

They stepped into Upper School with the most delightful happy-go-lucky zeal—a characteristic quality of this class, of which so much is anticipated.

That they were ready to take over the responsibilities of Upper School life was illustrated by the magazine drive. Their pink elephants at the Freshmen-Sophomore Hop were clever and original. We hope their creativity and originality will continue to grow and enlighten them in the future years.

ACTIVITIES

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Government is a trust, and the officers of the government are the trustees; and both the trust and the trustees are created for the benefit of the people.

— Clay

The Student Council has carried out its duties this year efficiently and graciously. It began the year with an open discussion of the Honor System which gave the whole student body solid food for thought. The Semi-Formal "Harbor Lights," captured all the charm of an abandoned dock. Having chosen the Religious Conference delegates, it proceeded by conducting an exacting clean-up week with the theme "Lady and the Tramp." Throughout the year Student Council kept as its goal the up-holding of the Honor System in all walks of student life.

THE HOUSE COUNCIL

Manners are the happy ways of doing things.
—Emerson

The House Council strives to promote unity and ease in group living, while being a pleasant reminder of the Honor System at all times.

In November, House Council enlightened and enlivened the boarding department by sponsoring a party with entertainment appropriate for "Annie's at Home."

Throughout the year, House Council maintains order in corridor life and provides a firm basis for cooperative living.

SERVICE LEAGUE

Where your treasure is, there will your heart be.
—MATTHEW VI: 21

During the year the Service League has endeavored to carry out its motto: "You can give without loving, but you cannot love without giving." The Service League has sponsored various projects this year under the guidance of Miss Eleanor Fass and Miss Alison Kent. The Lenten offering went to the needy in Mexico, and the Service League has widened our horizons of giving and reminded us of our living, growing responsibility to humanity.

SHIELD BOARD

The years by themselves do not make a place historic. It is men who give the color of history to a place by their deeds there or by merely having lived there.

—Strunsky

Spending busy Monday afternoons and shortened lunch hours, the Shield Board has worked to create an original book which will bring back happy memories of our years at Annie Wright.

We wish to extend our thanks at this time to all those associated with the production of the Shield: to Richards Studio, the North Pacific Banknote Company, and especially to our adviser, Miss Jean Bloomquist.

THE CHOIR

Music is love in search of a word.
—Lanier

What a familiar sight the choir is lining up in their blue robes for chapel every morning and evening. Their singing, not only every day, but also at the Christmas and Easter Carol services, gives us all great pleasure and adds to the beauty of our services.

THE GLEE CLUB

Music is truly said to be the speech of angels.
— Anon

Expressing their desire and ability to sing, Glee Club members have sung hymns, folk songs, and Broadway hits at their Tuesday meetings. The highlight of their musical year was the presentation of the Glee Club carol at the Christmas Carol Service.

The experience and enjoyment received by the Glee Club members cultivates a love for singing which will benefit future Choirs.

THE IVY VINE CREATIVE MAGAZINE

A creative economy is the fuel of magnificence
—Emerson

Under the direction of the editors Sally Hansen and Kate Johnson, Ivy Vine has surged forward this year as an important creative unit of the school's life. Mrs. John Wagner's talks have highlighted the meetings and spurred growing writers onto bigger and better achievements. The two issues came out at strategic times, the Christmas Carnival and May Day, and each was a true success. The ideas stirred up by the club have been active ingredients in the school's intellectual life throughout the year.

RAYNOR GUILD

"Let each man think himself an act of God
His mind a thought, his life a breath of God."
—Bailey

OFFICERS:

Secretary-Treasurer: Ann Gibson.

Vice-President: Kathy Parks.

President: Helen Hunter.

The Raynor Guild takes care of the chapel with its incessant dusting and polishing. At Holy Communion the Raynor girls serve as acolytes and for Christmas and Easter they decorate the nave with greens and flowers to make the service more lovely. By attending to these small but necessary items the girls receive a spiritual wholeness.

S.A.C.

True disputants are like true sportsmen, their whole delight is in the pursuit.
—Pope

OFFICERS:

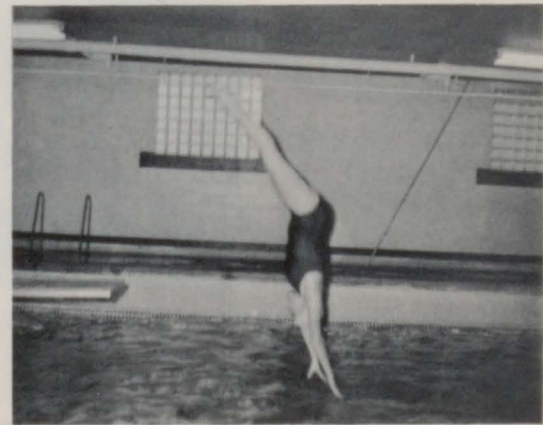

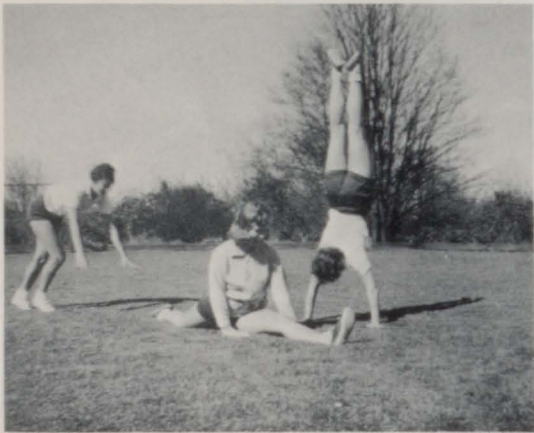

President: Gundl Primus.

Vice-President: Tinker Taylor.

Treasurer: Vicki McLallen.

Secretary: Baba Parks.

The Seminary Athletic Council sponsors all our athletic activities, besides planning for many school functions such as May Day, Dads' Day, Hallowe'en, and Easter Breakfast. The rivalry of the blue and gold teams create a friendly spirit of sportsmanship and encourage competition in the athletic fields.

THE MASQUE CLUB

"This is the actor's gift, to share all moods, all passions . . ."
—Dobson

After the initiation of its new members, Masque began rehearsals for the annual play under their director, Miss Jean Bloomquist. On the night of March eleventh, amidst a last minute pinning of costumes, touching-up of make-up, and rearranging of scenery, the curtain went up on "She Stoops to Conquer." Masque also presented a delightful one-act play for the Lower School in April, and ended the year with the annual banquet at the Cliff House.

T. A. S. C.

"I think, when I read of the poet's desire, that a house by the side of the road would be good; but service is found in its tenderest form when we walk with the crowd in the road."

—Gresham

T.A.S.C., The Athletic Service Club, gives us the opportunity to help the school by playing games with the smaller children at lunch, serving cookies and milk at tea time, and helping to dry the little ones' hair and clean up the pool after swimming. T.A.S.C. girls perform a vital service to the school by keeping it running smoothly.
